Terminal Disclaimer

1. The terminal disclaimer filed on 07/28/2004 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of the full statutory term as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer of U.S. Patent 6,366,916, has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Reasons for Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Based on Board of Appeals Decision, "to transfer data from one location to another location should be construed to mean that the data of the one location is written into the another location" (see Decision on Appeal, page 4 line 19 – page 5 line 15). None of prior art teaches the feature "transferring the data to and from the data store, which requires that data be written into and read from the data store, in response to methods invoked in the at least one client adapter by client application"; therefore, the invention is patentable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
